Fund manager commentary

The key contributors to performance were healthcare investment ICU Medical, which moved sharply higher after its earnings report, as well as industrial investments GFL Environmental and Woodward. Intercontinental Exchange and CRH were also important contributors.

Key detractors in the month included Avantor, Fortrea and Danaher, as well as aerospace investment Melrose Industries.

After a volatile June and July, markets were calmer in August with more modest moves across a variety of market indices, including the Magnificent 7. The market increasingly expects the Fed to begin reducing interest rates later this year, with the debate now focussed on the magnitude of cuts.

Please see our quarterly newsletter for a more detailed commentary.
