Pacific Asset Management is proud to be a signatory of:

A commitment to responsible investing

As a signatory to the UN PRI Principles for Responsible Investment, Pacific Asset Management has publicly stated our support for the better understanding of the investment implications of environmental, social and governance (ESG) factors.

As a business we are committed to constantly strive to be a more responsible firm both in how we operate and how we manage our clients' investments.

Investment objective

The Fund's investment objective is to provide capital growth over the long term primarily through investments which meet sustainable investment criteria. It attempts to limit the risk of capital loss in most market conditions by investing primarily in regulated funds.

Fund manager commentary

Market volatility picked up in August as some crowded macro trades unwound rapidly triggered by signs that the labour market in the US is softening. Equity volatility, as measured by the VIX index, rose to 38 at the start of the month, and during a period of frantic trading, Japanese equities dropped over 20% before recovering some of this loss. At the Jackson Hole conference, Federal Reserve Chair Powell signalled that the Fed intended to cut policy rates at its September, stating that: 'The time has come for policy to adjust. The direction of travel is clear, and the timing and pace of rate cuts will depend on incoming data, the evolving outlook, and the balance of risks.'

Despite these dramatic moves, global equity ended the month broadly unchanged in sterling terms, as markets recovered much of the early losses. Within Equities, the holding in a Lyxor Gender Equality ETF outperformed markets over the course of the month, which owns high quality stocks as determined by their proportion of women in senior roles within a business.

Fixed income markets were positive in July and provided a diversifying effect against the volatility seen in equity markets. Holdings in US inflation linked government bonds rallied over the course of the month.

Within Alternatives, a position in Abrdn Property Income was up over 5.5%. It owns high quality, efficient office and commercial space with a unique carbon offset embedded within the structure.

Diversifying asset performance was positive as a holding in the Japanese yen once again rallied and added value, as the carry trade, where investors had previously sold the yen to buy higher yielding currencies, unwound.

Portfolio sustainability analysis

All underlying investment managers in the Pacific Multi-Asset Sustainable Fund are signatories to the UN PRI Principles for Responsible Investment.

% of portfolio covered by a Global Sustainable Investment Alliance (GSIA) target*

The GSIA is globally recognised framework which classifies the universe of sustainable products against a range of sustainable targets. This allows us to define the nature of our sustainable implementation in the following formats and calculate the % of the portfolio covered by a sustainable target.

*Breakdown excludes cash

UNDERSTANDING THE CARBON IMPACTS OF INVESTING SUSTAINABLY

PACIFIC MULTI-ASSET SUSTAINABLE BALANCED PORTFOLIO CARBON METRICS ANALYSIS

£500K INVESTED EQUATES TO:

Carbon usage measured in tonnes of carbon per $m of sales

When utilising this measure, we cover 77.4% of the portfolio (government bonds, alternatives and cash are not able to be calculated) 'Comparison made versus an equivalent portfolio from an asset allocation perspective populated with benchmark holdings'

For illustrative purposes only

WHAT DOES SUSTAINABLE INVESTING MEAN TO PAM?

Sustainable investing is a catch-all term for investing in a way that accounts for being socially responsible and investing ethically while also seeking returns. At PAM we use the term sustainable investing to capture the various methods of incorporating concerns around Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) issues into our investment decision making processes.

A commitment to responsible investing

As a signatory to the UN PRI Principles for Responsible Investment, Pacific Asset Management has publicly stated our support for the better understanding of the investment implications of ESG factors. As a business we are committed to constantly strive to be a more responsible firm both in how we operate and how we manage our clients' investments.
